What employers want to see and how to say it.

How do you get your CV to the top of the pile?

When you apply for a job your CV is compared to hundreds of others. You've only got the time it takes the recruiter to scan the pages to show how brilliant you are. How do you impress when you don't know what employers are actually looking for? This book tells you what you what they want to read – and how to write it.

This bestselling guide is based on research among employers and recruiters, revealing what they look for and how the recruitment industry operates. Here Jim Bright and Joanne Earl share the secrets of writing CV's that make the shortlist.

This book will show you:

- How to put together a brilliant CV from scratch
- How to revamp an existing CV to make it brilliant
- Examples and explanations of CV's that employers love and those they loathe
- How to address tricky CV questions.

Find out what works in the real world and learn how to put it into practise through examples, exercises, samples and templates.
