

Faculty of Health Equality & Diversity Statement

Equality and Diversity

Equality is about treating people with respect and dignity, and providing everyone with opportunities to fulfil their potential. Students and staff within the University come from a diverse mix of backgrounds, heritages, ages, experiences and skills which promotes innovation and creativity. More information about any aspect of equality and diversity at Staffordshire University can be obtained from http://www.staffs.ac.uk/about_us/university_departments/equality_and_diversity/

The University operates a Single Equality Scheme which outlines the framework for promoting equality, inclusivity and diversity within the university community to deliver equality of opportunity and access to all. This can be viewed at

The Faculty of Health Equality and Diversity Coordinator, Dr Liz Boslem, can be contacted on 01785 881007 or via email at e.i.boslem@staffs.ac.uk.

Student Enabling Service

Staffordshire University is committed to enabling all students to achieve their full potential. In order to support students in doing this, the Enabling Service can provide specialist study support for disabled students and also a counselling service to support students who may experience problems and difficulties that affect their mental wellbeing.

The service provides a range of information, advice and facilities for disabled students, such as offering study needs assessments, help to apply for the Disabled Students' Allowance and providing study support services, e.g. for students with dyslexia.

More information about the Enabling Service can be obtained from
