6. Special Conditions

This is a permanent, full time (1.0fte) post.

There will be a need for the postholder to work occasional week-ends to cover activities such as recruitment events and CPD activities.

There will be a need for flexible working practices by the role-holder to support different forms of delivery such as distance and accelerated learning which could necessitate teaching outside the two designated semester periods

New Lecturer Development Policy

The University is keen to support staff in achieving high standards of pedagogy in order to facilitate effective student learning. All newly appointed full-time and fractional contracted members of academic staff who have less than three years teaching experience and do not have the equivalent qualification from another University, are required to undertake and complete the Post Graduate Certificate in Higher and Professional Education (PgCHPE)/Post Graduate Diploma in Professional Education in Healthcare (PgDPEH) or 5-day survival guide to Teaching in Higher Education as a condition of his/her employment with Staffordshire University, in accordance with the policy. If you are shortlisted this will be explained further by the chair of the interview panel. Positive engagement in CPD in order to attain a high standard of pedagogy will be one of the factors considered during probation, at annual appraisals and when promotions are being made. Active involvement in the Post Graduate Certificate in Higher and Professional Education would be one source of evidence.

Research and Scholarly Activity

The duties of lecturing posts include participation in appropriate research and scholarly activity indicated in the Research Policy of the University. The extent of involvement in research and scholarly activity may vary with the balance between teaching, administration and research appropriate to particular posts. This will be determined by your Dean of Faculty in consultation with you, and will be reviewed regularly through the staff appraisal system.

While it is in the nature of research and scholarly activity that it will often take place throughout the year and be integrated into the overall pattern of activities, it is envisaged that the periods of the year outside normal teaching weeks and the holiday entitlement will primarily be devoted to research and scholarly activity.

The University operates a Job Share Scheme. Applications from anyone interested in working part-time on a job share basis will be considered.

Appointment to the University

The University is an independent Statutory Higher Education Corporation. As such the Board of Governors of the University is the employer, and is responsible for determining the employment policy, pay and conditions of service of all its employees.

The agreed terms and conditions for all staff are set out in the University's terms and conditions of service. In addition your attention is drawn to the following general points:

Medical Clearance

The appointment is subject to satisfactory medical screening, which normally consists of completion of a confidential questionnaire.

Eligibility to Live or Work in the UK

In line with the Asylum and Immigration Act 1996, documentation is required to confirm that employees are eligible to live or work in the UK. Any offer of employment is subject to this documentation being provided.

CRB Clearance

Where indicated in the job description an offer of employment will be subject to a satisfactory response to a check of criminal records.

Pension Contributions

All members of staff are eligible to contribute to the relevant occupational Pension Scheme which is either the Local Government Pension Scheme or Teachers Pension Scheme, both of which are final salary schemes. Staffordshire University as the employer also contributes to each scheme.

Sickness Pay

An employee absent from duty due to illness will be entitled to receive paid sickness leave, as set out in the University's terms and conditions of service.

Payment of Salary

Salary is payable monthly in arrears, normally on the last Wednesday of each month. Payment is made by direct credit to a recognised bank/building society/giro account. All new employees should ensure that the relevant details for credit transfer are completed on the standard form issued on appointment.

Annual Leave

Individuals are entitled to the following leave entitlements based on the grade of the post with effect from 1st August 2007 onwards: -

Grade	Number of Days Worked per Week*
