

World Volunteers

Author: Fabio Ausenda & Erin McCloskey

ISBN: 978-88-89060-09-3

Section: Work Experience & Voluntary Work

For people who want to get involved, but don't know how

How to choose the most suitable project to match your interests and abilities and become a volunteer in a developing country. A guide for students, retirees, doctors or accountants, nurses or agronomists, plumber or builders, teachers or computer experts (who can also volunteer from home) . . . For everyone who wants to get involved in helping those who suffer worldwide.

Work-camps and internships for students

For people with no previous international experience, dozens of humanitarian work-camp opportunities lasting up to one month, in Africa, Asia, Latin America, Eastern Europe and Middle East. Share the experience with young people all over the world.

Short-term voluntary work for those with work experience

Projects lasting up to a month in developing countries where any professional experience is precious, An opportunity to spend a unique working holiday the benefits of which do not end after your return home.

Long-term Voluntary or paid work

And much more . . .