

CURRICULUM VITAE

NEVIL WYATT

Senior Lecturer in Social Work, Division of Social Work & Applied Social Studies

DEGREES/PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

Certificate of Qualification in Social Work, Birmingham University, 1987.
MA (Hons) Race & Ethnic Studies, University of Warwick, 1991.
Cert. Ed (in HE), Staffordshire University 1996

PREVIOUS POSTS

Social Worker, Birmingham SSD, 1987 - 1990
Training Officer, Sandwell SSD 1990 - 1992
Senior Practitioner, Staffordshire SSD, 1992 - 1993

CURRENT TEACHING AREAS

Degree in Social Work – Level 1

Values, Theories and Process

Degree in Social Work – Level 1

Law – Children and Families

Degree in Social Work – Level 2

Children and Families

Foundation Degree HND – Level 1

Children and Family Law

CURRENT ADMIN RESPONSIBILITIES

Award Leader: Degree in Social Work
Chair: Programme Management Group
Chair: Practice Assessment Panel
Member Criminal Convictions Panel (University)
Member Criminal Convictions Panel (Faculty)

OTHER PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

A substantial programme of short courses, concerning:-

Black and Ethnic Minority Looked after Children
Team Building and Assertiveness Techniques for Black and Ethnic Minority Workers
Anti-racist/Anti-discriminatory practice for Social Care Workers
Foster Panel member: Parallel Parents – Independent Fostering Agency

ILT Member

Executive committee member, Potteries Young Homeless Project, 1995 to present.

Chair: Union of African and African Caribbean Organisations (UAACO)

PUBLICATIONS

Contributions to J Pierson & M Thomas (eds) Dictionary of Social Work 1995, Collins

JOURNAL ARTICLES CURRENTLY IN PREPARATION

Statutory Interventions for Black and Ethnic Minority 'Looked After' Young Children

How partnership between welfare organisations and Black children and their families work. The place of anti-racist strategies in protecting Black children from significant harm

RECENT CONFERENCES/COURSES ATTENDED

Numerous short courses (one day) relating to PhD Programme of Study

The Youth Justice System: Delivering and 'end to end service'. November 2005

Creating opportunities: Building Futures. March 2005

Affirming our Value Base in Social Work and Allied Professionals

Small Voices – Loud Noises. November 2005

Reshaping the Agenda for Children's Services. December 2004