BSc (Hons) Psychology & Life Challenges Award

Choosing Level 5 (Year 2) Modules

About This Booklet

This booklet is designed to give you information about:

- Level 5 (Level 2) modules and award structure
- what you have to do to register for Level 5 modules

This booklet contains:-

1. The structure of the BSc (Honours) Psychology & Life Challenges award including information about 'Graduate Basis for Chartership' (GBC) which is the pattern of essential modules required by the British Psychological Society (BPS) for postgraduate study in Psychology.
2. Details of how you register on modules.
3. Information about the modules available, in draft form. The descriptors for each module will tell you about any preconditions for studying, like pre-requisites (what you need to have studied before Year 2/Level 5).
4. Information about pre-requisites for Level 6 (year 3) modules we expect to be available to you, so you can ensure you have the necessary pre-requisites.

(NB: Please note there may be unavoidable changes)

Graduate Membership of the BPS and GBC

All Psychology Awards (singles and joints) where you study a minimum of 50% psychology at Levels 5 and 6 (i.e. 60 credits at each level), are accredited with the British Psychological Society (BPS) and allow you to apply for Graduate Membership of the Society.

If you follow a prescribed pattern of modules at Levels 5 and 6 (a set 60 credits at each level) you can claim a second level of recognition with the BPS, Graduate Basis for Chartership (GBC), as long as you also achieve at least grade point 7 overall on your award at level 6 (2:2 classification). This means you have been recognised as doing an award that confers eligibility to pursue a career in psychology, including applying for BPS recognised postgraduate courses in psychology.

For Psychology and Life Challenges students, Graduate Basis for Chartership (GBC), does not automatically follow from studying the core content of Levels 5 and 6. You will need to take the other specified Psychology modules (Research Methods 3 and Biological Basis of Behaviour).

BSc Psychology & Life Challenges Award

Modules at Level 5

You must take 120 credits in total at Level 5, followed by a further 120 at Level 6. 60 credits at Level 5 consist of core modules in psychology. The remaining 60 credits are made up of options; 45 of which must be psychology specific, but the remaining 15 can be either psychology or a university general option (see University General Options, page 7).

If you follow the GBC route you MUST choose Research Methods 3 and Biological Basis of Behaviour as your specific options

PSYCHOLOGY & LIFE CHALLENGES (not conferring GBC eligibility)

Level 5: Core modules

Social Psychology: Theory & Method

Psychopathology & Health

Cognitive Psychology

Psychology of Criminal Conduct

+ 45 credits Psychology Specific Options

+ 15 from Psychology Specific Options or University General List.

PSYCHOLOGY MODULES

A summary of each module, including indicative content, learning strategies and assessment details, can be found on the module registration webpage at <http://www.staffs.ac.uk/schools/sciences/psychology/coursematerials/options/level2/index.php>.

To access module descriptors for all available modules go to <http://www.staffs.ac.uk/current/student/modules/>

There are several important prerequisites for studying modules in level 6. These are summarised below in the table below:

Level 6 module	Level 5 modules which must be passed in advance
Psychology Project	Social Psychology: Theory & Method AND Research Methods 3

ADVICE ON MODULE SELECTION

Remember you must take 120 credits overall at Level 5.

You can ask your Personal Tutors as well as the Level 5 tutor (Emily Buckley: Room S221) for advice on your choices.

NB

There will be a chance to amend your choices later if you find a timetable clash. Occasionally there are changes to the precise form of assessment. You should always check the specific details when you start the module.

Check the Level 4 Notice Board for announcements related to Module Registration for changes that may occur.

UNIVERSITY GENERAL OPTIONS

At all levels, you may study for 15 credits in disciplines other than Psychology through taking University General Options. Descriptions of the modules available will be available on the University Website prior to Module Registration week.

The University General Option lists are still being finalised, and you will find modules on a range of subjects such as I.T., business and languages. You will need to check that you meet any conditions, such as pre-requisites, for studying any modules outside of Psychology. You will also have to check that it doesn't clash with any Psychology core lectures. It is a good idea to find out more from a tutor involved in the module.

If you would prefer to take an additional module from the award specific option group(s) attached to your award, rather than a University General Option, you are free to do so in any year, but they will be labelled as your general credits.

Arrangements for module registration 2011

The first part of enrolment onto Level 5 (Year 2) Psychology Modules (with the exception of Volunteering¹) will take place in S207, Psychology, 2nd Floor Mellor Building on Wednesday 30th March 2011, between 1.30pm and 3.30pm. You will be able to sign up for your Psychology lectures and seminars for next year at that time.

Preparing for Module Registration

Before coming for Module Registration you need to fill in your Module Registration Form.

- § First list all your CORES and OPTIONS.
- § Then check the day and time of Lectures and Seminars for each module on your list.
- § Ensure that there are no clashes between your modules for both Lectures and Seminars. You cannot do an Option that clashes with any of your Core Lectures.²
- § Choose at least 2 possible Seminar times for each module – as you may not always get your first choice.
- § Fill in the Timetable at the back of this Booklet (preferably in pencil) to ensure that you have no clashes.
- § Take your Module Registration Form and Timetable to S207 on 30th March 2011.
- § Once you have signed up for a module, note on your timetable which slots you have confirmed, and keep your timetable in a safe place – it is not an easy task to find out your seminar times at a later date.

KEEP CHECKING THE LEVEL 4 PSYCHOLOGY NOTICE BOARD FOR MORE SPECIFIC & NEW INFORMATION

If you plan to study a University General Option in another subject area, you will have to find out from the relevant faculty/field offering it how you enrol and when the lectures and seminars are. This information is usually available online via the University's homepage.

¹ Enrolment onto Volunteering will be in Flaxman.

² Sometimes you may not know of clashes but you should be able to sort these out later

How your degree classification is calculated

Your grades at Level 5 contribute to your final degree classification, and so we thought it would be useful to include information here on how degree classifications are calculated.

Having checked that you have passed all the modules and satisfied all the requirements of your award the Award Board will consider your overall score in Level 5 and 6 modules.

This overall score will be determined by taking into account all your Level 5 module results and giving them a 30% weighting, and all your Level 6 module results and giving them a 70% weighting. You must ensure that you have completed at least the minimum number of specific credits required for your award. Any Additional modules you have taken must be recorded as "Additional" rather than Core, Specific Option or General Option modules. This must be done at the point of module enrolment - it cannot be done once you have completed the module. You should note that additional modules will not be taken into account when determining your degree classification. You should read the sections on Module Enrolment and Student Workload very carefully for more details on this issue.

In order to ensure equity for students who have studied different numbers of credits at each of Levels 5 and 6, the Award Board will calculate the average grade point achieved per 15 credits at each of Levels 5 and 6. This figure will then be used in calculating honours classification.

Where compensation is awarded by a Level 6 Award Board (to either Level 5 or Level 6 modules) the original Grade Point achieved will contribute to the overall score.

In summary then:

Overall Score = 30% of average grade points per 15 credits at Level 5 + 70% of average grade points per 15 credits at Level 6.

Appendix 3: Changing Modules after Module Registration

CHANGING MODULES

1. You are expected to keep a record of the modules you have chosen in each Semester, including seminar slots. A Timetable is attached for this purpose.
2. You cannot change modules without getting a tutor to sign your Module amendment sheet.
3. Once your tutor has signed the module amendment sheet you must hand it in to the Psychology Admin Staff (via Reception, Mellor Ground Floor). All changes must be recorded by the Psychology secretary otherwise you will not be registered for that module on the University system and this will affect assessments for that module.
4. Often changing a module means you have to choose a new seminar slot for that module, this must be done through the Psychology Admin Staff. You can also contact the office by emailing psychadmin@staffs.ac.uk or by calling extension 4475 (01782 294475 from outside the university).

CHANGING SEMINAR TIMES

Whenever possible we will try and accommodate people with a genuine need, but in general, you are advised not to change Seminar times unless absolutely necessary. Please choose your modules and seminar slots carefully to avoid unnecessary problems later on.

You must keep a record of the Lecture and Seminar times for your chosen modules as you will need these in September at the start of Level 5 (level 2)

If you do need to change your seminar times you must:

1. Discuss your needs with the Level Tutors or Psychology Secretary and provide evidence why you need to change seminar times
2. Do this within the first 2 weeks of the semester.
3. Notify your MODULE Tutor that you will be changing seminar slots and let them know which slot you have changed from and to.
4. Make sure your name is on the Seminar List for the slot you have changed to – you will need to see the Psychology Secretary to do this.

NB – It may not always be possible to change your Seminar times because:

- § Most Seminars have an upper limit of the number of people in the group (normally 20-25) but this varies across modules.
- § Some seminars (e.g. Research Methods, Social Psychology) can only accommodate a set number of people.
