Monitoring of University-level Risk

The University is committed to implementing a risk management framework, to enable an appropriate and proportionate level of risk management across the University and to ensure that key risk related issues are addressed in a timely fashion.

The objectives are to:

- Continuously develop risk management to raise its profile across the University
- Further integrate risk management into the culture and decision making of the University
- Manage risk, including the University's risk appetite

The following risks are overseen by this Committee:

Risk	Risk Appetite Level
Civic engagement	Open – Hungry
Legal compliance	Cautious
People and organisational development	Open

	Approach to achieving aims and objectives	Potential Reward/Benefit from Risk taking
Avoid	Safe; exposure to only the very lowest levels of risk	Very Low
Cautious	Guarded; as little risk as reasonably possible	Low
Moderate	Balanced; exposure to middle-ground risks	Medium
Open	Creative; elevated levels of risk exposure	High
Hungry	Pioneering; substantial levels or risk exposure	Extremely High

Appointment and Re-appointment to the Board

- (a) To consider and make recommendations to the Board regarding the appointment of independent members of the Board and co-opted committee members when vacancies arise whilst reviewing and maintaining a range of suitable applicants to be considered on an ongoing basis.
- (b) To review the skills and diversity of all members to ensure that the Board composition is balanced appropriately.
- (c) To review on an annual basis the attendance of members at Board and sub-committee meetings during the previous twelve-month period and report as necessary to the Board.
- (d) To consider and make recommendations to the Board regarding the possible re-appointment to office of independent members and co-opted committee members once their existing period of office has expired.

Sub-committees of the Board

- (e) To review annually the composition of the Board's sub-committees and to make recommendations, as appropriate, to the Board.
- (f) To review annually the Board's Sub-committee structure and terms of reference to ensure that:
 - it meets the current needs of the institution, taking into account any specific major issues, such as abnormally large capital projects;
 - sub-committees work effectively as individual units, within a clear, defined and integrated structure;
 - there is no unnecessary duplication or referrals back and forth;
 - there are no gaps in coverage;
 - each committee is aware of the major opportunities and key risks for which it is responsible;
 - each sub-committee has the correct balance of skills and experience;
 - each sub-committee is clear about its reporting requirements.
- (g) To make recommendations to the Board in regard to the Chairs and Deputy Chairs of sub-committees for the following academic year.

Chancellor

- (h) To consider and make recommendations to the Board regarding the appointment and re-appointment of the Chancellor.
