a) To teach and assess, as part of a teaching team, in the areas of knowledge appropriate to the aims of the provision within the Faculty of Health and where appropriate, across other Faculties/Schools of the University.

b) To contribute to the development of specialist teaching and learning provision, including short courses, in Health and associated disciplines.

c) To devise and deliver modules as determined by the relevant academic manager and to ensure that learning materials and methods of delivery meet defined learning objectives.

d) To undertake operational responsibilities associated with the delivery of academic provision, including the leadership of modules/small awards, as directed by the relevant academic manager.

e) To enhance the quality of teaching provision and programme development, drawing on leading practices from the HE and other sectors, and building e-learning into the delivery of teaching to students as appropriate.

f) To participate with other staff in the development of teaching, learning and assessment strategies.

g) To contribute to student support in administrative and pastoral roles, including availability to advise students on resits and to provide post-results counselling during the summer period.

h) To represent both the award and the Faculty in student recruitment activities, including participation in Clearing activities during the summer period and in Open Days throughout the year.

i) To attend and contribute to Health Professions meetings as required.

j) To contribute to the subject’s activities and reputation both internally and externally.

k) To exercise a high standard of research and scholarship both personally and as a member of a team, working with colleagues to develop an inclusive, team-orientated approach to research activities.

l) To enhance the Faculty’s ability to engage with industrial and external partner contacts through effective networking to build relationships for future activities.

m) To pursue enterprise and research activities which enhance the external revenue of the Faculty/School and to deliver various forms of consultancy and other services as determined by the relevant academic manager.

n) To maintain and develop areas of expertise under the general guidance and oversight of the relevant academic manager.
To undertake appropriate staff development activities as required.

p) To undertake other such responsibilities as may reasonably be required by the relevant academic manager and/or Dean of Faculty/School.

Specific Requirements

The post is subject to the individual maintaining registration with the relevant professional body and to compliance with appropriate codes of professional practice. You are expected to maintain standards of behaviour and appearance compatible with the execution of clinical work, the expectations of Health Service employers and the general public.

5. Person Sought

Essential Criteria:

6. Special Conditions

This post is available on a permanent, 1.0 FTE basis.

This post is exempted under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and as such, appointment will be subject to the University being satisfied with the outcome of an enhanced check of criminal records via the Criminal Records Bureau. This will include details of cautions, reprimands or final warnings, as well as convictions.

There will be a need for the post holder to work occasional week-ends to cover activities such as recruitment events and CPD activities.

There will be a need for flexible working practices by the role-holder to support different forms of delivery such as distance and accelerated learning which could necessitate teaching outside the two designated semester periods.

You will need to be able to travel between sites within the University and placements in a cost effective manner which may be through use of a car

External Activities

External activities which enhance the work of the post holder are encouraged within the overall provisions of the exclusivity of the service arrangements to which the post holder is subject. Additionally, the Institution encourages employees to take a cross University role e.g. through membership of Committees and Working Parties.

New Lecturer Development Policy

The University is keen to support staff in achieving high standards of pedagogy in order to facilitate effective student learning. All newly appointed full-time and fractional contracted members of academic staff who have less than three years teaching experience and do not have the equivalent qualification from another University, are required to undertake and complete the Post Graduate Certificate in Higher and Professional Education (PgCHPE)/Post Graduate Diploma in Professional Education in Healthcare
Research and Scholarly Activity

The duties of lecturing posts include participation in appropriate research and scholarly activity indicated in the Research Policy of the University. The extent of involvement in research and scholarly activity may vary with the balance between teaching, administration and research appropriate to particular posts. This will be determined by your Dean of Faculty in consultation with you, and will be reviewed regularly through the staff appraisal system. While it is in the nature of research and scholarly activity that it will often take place throughout the year and be integrated into the overall pattern of activities, it is envisaged that the periods of the year outside normal teaching weeks and the holiday entitlement will primarily be devoted to research and scholarly activity.

The University operates a Job Share Scheme. Applications from anyone interested in working part-time on a job share basis will be considered.

Date Job Description Revised: June 2009

Variation to Job Description

Staffordshire University reserves the right to vary the duties and responsibilities of its employees within the general conditions of the Scheme of pay and conditions and employment related matters. Thus it must be appreciated that the duties and responsibilities outlined above may be altered as the changing needs of the service may require.

Conditions of Service

The post is subject to such terms and conditions of employment as negotiated between the Board of Governors of the University and the recognised trade unions, and/or the employees of the University. In negotiating such terms and conditions the Board of Governors will consider any appropriate advice received from the Universities and Colleges Employers Association (UCEA).

Appointment to the University

The University is an independent Statutory Higher Education Corporation. As such the Board of Governors of the University is the employer, and is responsible for determining the employment policy, pay and conditions of service of all its employees.

The agreed terms and conditions for all staff are set out in the University's terms and conditions of service. In addition your attention is drawn to the following general points:

Medical Clearance

The appointment is subject to satisfactory medical screening, which normally consists of completion of a confidential questionnaire.

Eligibility to Live or Work in the UK

In line with the Asylum and Immigration Act 1996, documentation is required to confirm that employees are eligible to live or work in the UK. Any offer of employment is subject to this documentation being provided.

CRB Clearance

Where indicated in the job description an offer of employment will be subject to a satisfactory response to a check of criminal records.

Pension Contributions

All members of staff are eligible to contribute to the relevant occupational Pension Scheme which is either the Local Government Pension Scheme or Teachers Pension Scheme, both of which are final salary schemes. Staffordshire University as the employer also contributes to each scheme.

Sickness Pay

An employee absent from duty due to illness will be entitled to receive paid sickness leave, as set out in the University’s terms and conditions of service.

Payment of Salary

Salary is payable monthly in arrears, normally on the last Wednesday of each month. Payment is made by direct credit to a recognised bank/building society/giro account. All new employees should ensure that the relevant details for credit transfer are completed on the standard form issued on appointment.
