Value	Skill/Behaviour	Explain in more detail
Example: Public Services	Sharing credit/teamwork	I had been working on a group project with my colleague. On the day of the presentation to our manager, my colleague was off ill. After being congratulated for my excellent work, I informed my manager that it was a team effort and acknowledged the excellent work my colleague had been involved with. I believe sharing credit and acknowledging the work of others is an important value with teamwork and integrity.
