About Breda University of Applied Science

With around 7,000 students, Breda is a small-scale university of applied sciences. Lecturers know you by name and are easily accessible for help or advice. The Dutch higher educational system has an excellent reputation worldwide. The teaching style can be described as interactive and student-centred, providing students with the attention and freedom they need to develop their own opinions and creativity while applying their acquired knowledge.

About Breda

The new and green campus is located near the centre of student city Breda. The campus boasts many opportunities for meeting people and finding inspiration. The city itself is fun, safe and internationally oriented. Breda is a city of many faces. With its cobblestone streets, extraordinary historic buildings, beautiful canals, green parks, lively pavement cafés and surprising creative hotspots, there's something for everyone. It has all the amenities of a city but with the charming cosiness of a village.

Things to do in Breda

Grote Kerk - The Grote Kerk or Onze-Lieve-Vrouwekerk is a Reformed Protestant church, being the most important monument and a landmark of Breda. Climbing the tower offers spectacular views of the city.

Blind Walls Gallery - Blind Walls Gallery is a museum that is spread across the streets of Breda. A growing collection of more than 100 murals created by international artists.

Stadspark Valkenberg - This beautiful city park connects Breda's station with the city centre. Originally, it was the garden of the Castle of Breda.

Accommodation

Unfortunately, Breda University of Applied Sciences has no campus or student rooms of its own and, therefore, it will be your own responsibility to find accommodation in Breda. Rental prices for a student room in Breda vary from €450 to €700+ per month.

Most students find their rooms through Facebook groups, Klikvoorkamers (Click for Rooms) or with a local commercial company. Don't wait—check the housing manual and begin your search immediately to avoid missing out on available options!

BUas would like to help international students find accommodation in Breda and its surroundings. Therefore, they have a housing buddy for the summer months, starting in June, to help you if needed. The housing buddy can attend viewings for you if you are not in the Netherlands and the landlord requires this. Furthermore, they can double-check your contract or assist you if you have any doubts about an offer, and you think it is a scam.

If you have any questions or need advice, please feel free to contact the housing buddy via accommodation@buas.nl 076 533 2203 and ask for the housing buddy.
