The university also facilitates cultural activities in the student centres located at the campus, such as concerts, theatre performances, film screenings and exhibitions.

They will be able to provide you with detailed information about the facilities, room types and prices associated with each of the dormitories.

Additionally, you can also visit the official website of the dormitories at <https://yurtlar.tedu.edu.tr/en/general-information> to get more information about the amenities and services offered. Please note that the availability of dormitory spaces may vary depending on the time of year and demand.

However, if you prefer to find private accommodation or share a house with other students, there are some important things to keep in mind:

- Firstly, you should be aware that the Provincial Directorate of Immigration Management does not accept Airbnb stays as a valid form of accommodation. Instead, you will need an official and notarized rental contract or letter of commitment from your landlord to obtain a residence permit. This means that you should make sure to find a trustworthy landlord who is willing to provide you with the necessary documentation.
- Additionally, it's important to note that you should start the process of obtaining a residence permit as early as possible, as it can take some time to complete all the necessary paperwork. By being aware of these details, you can ensure that your housing situation is secure and that you are in compliance with all relevant regulations.
