About University of Bologna

The origins of the University of Bologna go way back, and it's considered to be the oldest university in the Western world. Its history is intertwined with that of the great names of science and literature; it is a keystone and a point of reference for European culture. The University covers 5 campuses: Bologna, Cesena, Forlì, Ravenna, and Rimini.

About Bologna

Bologna is a historic city in Italy, the capital of the Emilia-Romagna region, known as the "food capital" for its rich culinary traditions like Bolognese sauce, mortadella, and Parmesan cheese. It comprises distinctive medieval architecture and has a vibrant culture, offering a lively blend of traditional charm and modern development.

Things to do in Bologna

The Neptune Fountain – at the centre of Piazza del Nettuno, the Neptune Fountain, one of the most celebrated symbols of the city, was created by Giambologna in the late sixteenth century.

Piazza Maggiore - this central place of action in Bologna, Piazza Maggiore is home many of the city's most famous sites.

Aperitivo - aperitivo means spritzes accompanied by a spread of free light snacks to nibble on as you chat and drink – olives, cold cuts, nuts, and grissini. Think of it as a warm-up to dinner.
