

Information about accessing other support

In addition to accessing support from the Student Wellbeing team, you may wish to access other types and sources of support, particularly if you are finding it difficult to cope. The following list gives some possible options. We hope that the information provided in this document is helpful. Please note that Staffordshire University is not responsible for the quality, accuracy or effectiveness of the services, information or advice provided by organisations external to the University.

NHS services

GP (Doctor) can provide support regarding your mental wellbeing and can also refer you to other health professionals and services within the NHS, including urgent support if you are having serious suicidal thoughts. If you are registered with the Health Centre on the Stoke campus or Beaconside Health Centre, the contact details are below, otherwise you can find your local GP at www.nhs.uk

Stoke: Student Health Centre, Staffordshire University, Trent building, Leek Road, Stoke on Trent. Tel: 0300 1231765 (Term-time only.) All year round, the GPs are based at the Harley Street Medical Centre, Harley Street, Hanley, Stoke on Trent, ST1 3RX. Tel: 01782 212066. There is also a Mental Health Practitioner at this Practice.
